WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE NOT THE DRIVER OR IF IT'S A COMPANY CAR

DO NOT PAY THE CITATION IF YOU PLAN TO HAVE IT TAKEN OUT OF YOUR NAME

After a red light camera photograph is taken, the vehicle's registered owner will receive a citation in the mail. The citation will state when and where the violation occurred. It will include a photo of the vehicle in the intersection, a close-up of the driver and the vehicle's license plate. It will also include instructions about what to do next, including what to do if you, the registered owner, are not the person pictured behind the wheel.

NOT THE DRIVER?

DO NOT PAY THE CITATION IF YOU PLAN TO HAVE IT TAKEN OUT OF YOUR NAME

If you are the owner and someone else is driving, do the following:

- Attach a copy of your driver's license.
- Attach a recent photograph of yourself and the driver.
- Return all of the above documentation in person or by mail to:

Upon receipt of the above documentation, a traffic Commissioner will dismiss the citation from the company's name and issue a citation to the person that has been identified as the driver. The citation in the company's name will not be dismissed until the Court has received the completed identification form or payment has been made

The above procedure may take four (4) to eight (8) weeks. It is important to note that once the dismissal process has started no additional penalties will incur.
